

YI DING

Apt. 1 • 10524 Palms Blvd • Los Angeles, CA 90034
(860) 834-1504 • yding@wesleyan.edu

EDUCATION

Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT

May 2014

Bachelor of Arts | Major: Philosophy | Certificate: Social, Cultural, and Critical Theory | Major GPA: 3.6/4.0

Coursework: 19 Century French Painting: Modernity and Modernism, Introduction to Asian Art, Introduction to Western Art, Photography and Representation, Intellectual History to Renaissance, Moral Psychology, Calculus (Grade: A+).

Nanjing University, Nanjing, China

September 2009- June 2011

Bachelor of Arts | Major: Chinese Language and Literature | Major GPA: 3.6/4.0

EXPERIENCE

Publishing Intern, CHOICE Magazine, American Library Association, Middletown, CT November 2013-May 2014

- Edited reviews and selected book prospects in Humanities and Social Science for external review
- Conducted research to support editors in developing the biography, hot topic, and special collection feature projects
- Drafted and wrote emails to over 60 publishers and over 500 professors and scholars across disciplines to assist in marketing tasks such as sending E-Tear Sheets, recruiting reviewers, and answering general inquiries
- Maintained CHOICE publishing system and organized book records and reviewers' files

Editorial Intern, Grove Art Online, Oxford University Press, New York, NY

February 2014-April 2014

- Researched 100 art scholars and 330 images to maintain and develop email lists and database
- Used Microsoft Access to perform data clean-up projects in two different databases
- Assessed Grove articles and images to assist editors in an ongoing content update project
- Assisted in print-to-online encyclopedic article conversion by comparing 26 online versions to print
- Participated in production, editorial, data, and marketing meetings

Public Education Intern, National Art Museum of China, Beijing, China

June 2012- August 2012

- Organized public events for art exhibitions including three lectures on Chinese and Western Art and two children educational workshops on traditional Chinese toy culture
- Researched influential Chinese artworks to write and translate two 20-page educational catalogues for children and adults on the modern art exhibition at Museum of Fine Arts in Budapest
- Synthesized and translated information about public education at the Museum of Fine Arts and the MoMA into a report
- Archived photos, produced news articles for the National Art Museum of China's official website, and collected and analyzed visitor feedback to improve program satisfaction

ACTIVITIES

Staff Writer, The Argus, Middletown, CT

January 2013- December 2013

- Interviewed over 40 curators, artists, art students, and professors and regularly critique art exhibitions and art education

Tutor, WesReads & WesMath, Middletown, CT

September 2011- December 2012

- Tutored elementary school kids every week in reading, writing, and math

Journalist, Teach Value, Nanjing, China

September 2009-June 2011

- Interviewed and surveyed over 100 policy makers, professors, and students on trending educational or campus topics
- Researched and wrote reports on college and nation-wide educational issues, two of which were features

General Secretary, Youth Base School TV and Radio Station, Beijing, China

September 2007-June 2009

- Organized School Photography Competition and School Hosts Competition
- Managed daily administrative, broadcasting, and journalistic work for the whole station

SKILLS

Computer Skills: Proficiency with Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Access, Outlook, and basic HTML

Languages: Native speaker of Mandarin; fluent in English; elementary proficiency of German and Ancient Greek