

Ruomu Wang

1124 Front Street, Uniondale, NY 11553 •516-455-9970•rwang10@pride.hofstra.edu

LinkedIn: Ruomu Wang (<https://www.linkedin.com/in/ruomuwang>)

EDUCATION:

Hofstra University Hempstead, NY August 2014
M.S. in Education: Language Other Than English/TESOL

Major Courses: Immigration, Adolescent Development, Linguistics for Educators, Literacy Development

- Cumulative GPA: 3.88
- Honor: Master Degree with Distinction

Wen Hua College Wuhan, Hubei June 2012
B.A.: English (concentration in Education)

Major Courses: Educational Psychology, Cross-Culture Communication, Literature, Translation, Linguistics

- Honor: 2012 Provincial Excellent Graduation Thesis

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE:

Intern of Department of Programming and Development

May 2014-Present

New York Chinese Opera Society-New York, NY

- Write E-newsletter, promote and organize activities, and manage memberships
- Participate in the organization of activities on Chinese culture and community service, including “Youth Troupe Peking Opera Show in Flushing”, Lectures on Teaism, and Peking Opera Show “Daughter of Begger”
- Collect information about associations related to Chinese culture and arts in Greater New York and seek consistent and close cooperation with them

Chinese/ESL Student-Teacher

September 2013-April 2014

Lower East Side Preparatory High School-New York, NY

Leonard P. Stavisky Early Childhood School (P.S.242Q)-Flushing, NY

- Taught Chinese Literacy, AP Chinese and ESL for Chinese immigrant students
- Frequently communicated with parents, exchanged information about students’ study, and provided suggestions on family education for parents
- Participated in Chinese Cultural Club and supported the supervisor to organize activities, including the Chinese Spring Festival Party and Christmas Party, strengthening the bond of Chinese immigrant students
- Conducted a case study to explore how the experience of immigration influenced a student’s life and family, and summarized information on Asian-American teenagers’ psychological traits, needs and issues

Assistant Manager and Translator

April-July 2012

Wuhan University-Wuhan, Hubei

- Provided educational consulting, activity promotion, and translation of visa application documents
- Participated in college school fairs, introduced university’s international educational program for students taking the college entrance examination, and answered their questions about studying and living in Canada
- Met prospective students and their parents in person, discussed their educational background and career plans, and designed college application plans for them

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Chinese Literacy Teacher-Overseas China Education Foundation-Virtual

April 2014-Present

Teaching Assistant-Huazhong University of Science and Technology-Wuhan, Hubei

July 2013

SKILLS:

- Skills: Activity Promotion, Educational Consulting, Creative Chinese Writing, English-Chinese Translation
- Language skill: Chinese Mandarin-Native proficiency
English-Working proficiency