

Na Li

2115 Summit Ave #2220, St. Paul, MN, 55015

Phone: 651-239-2754 E-Mail: li373680@stthomas.edu

Objective

As an international student, I can speak Chinese, English, Japanese and a little Spanish. Because this background I know the difference of culture between Asian and American. I like to make conversation with people to prove my communication skill. And I can bring fresh new ideas for sales. I also know the basically Chinese history and early modern American history.

Experience

University of St. Thomas

Summer 2011 – Spring 2014

-- Dinning servers

-- Response to cook food for people.

Tutor Mentor

Highland Park Elementary School

Spring 2012

--Responsible for helping teacher and assisting students with homework twice a week.

Feed My Children

Winter 2009

--Package food for African children.

Education

University of St. Thomas

Anticipated Graduation, December. 2014

BA of major: Communication and Journalism

Courses and Skills

COJO 470 Family Communication

Spring 2014

University of St. Thomas

--To understand how important communication and family story sharing in a family. Do the research about history of family and family story telling.

COJO 268 Advertising Copywriting

Spring 2014

University of St. Thomas

-- Understand how to create advertising and learn how it work in a team. Did two advertising projects Jeans campaign and University of St. Thomas Ads.

COJO 234 Principles of Advertising and Public Relationship

Fall 2013

University of St. Thomas

--Learned what is advertising and public relationship. Did team work the BFAST products project for Ad and PR. BFAST shack is new product like a liquid meal for people easy to get, carry and save time in the morning.

COJO 328 Communication of Race, Class and Gender

Fall 2013

University of St. Thomas

-- Learned about history of race, class and gender in American history. Did research paper about "Pink Ribbon with Marketing Strategy." A lot companies sale the products with pink ribbon on it. When people buy these products they thought they donate money to breast cancer campaign and they thought they could help people. So people will buy the products with pink ribbon with same price more than the products without pink ribbon.

JAPN 211 Intermediate Japanese I

Fall 2013

University of St. Thomas

-- Can speaking and writing in Japanese. Understand Japanese culture and communication skill.

SPCH 1720 Interpersonal Communication

Spring 2013

Saint Paul College

-- Learned communication skill and did research about "Why We need Study the Second Language". Learned how to be a good communicator and listener.

SPAN 111 Elementary Spanish

Fall 2011

-- Understand some Spanish culture and some easy conversation.

